Poloffs met with Julian Juarez Cardenas, the Deputy Director General for UN-Related Security and Legal Issues at the Foreign Secretariat (SRE), on April 3 to convey (per reftel points) the importance the U.S. attached to compliance with UNSCR 1803 including guarding against the sale of dual use items and implementing the travel ban relating to designated individuals. Juarez told poloffs that he had already forwarded the resolution and supporting information that we had provided him in March to customs and immigration offices and other relevant entities including the Ministries of Government, Defense, Navy, Treasury, Economy, and Communications and Transportation, as well as the National Banking Commission. He assured us that Mexico shares our concern regarding Iran's lack of transparency relating to its nuclear energy activities. He advised that Mexico has no commercial dealings with Iran in any proliferation-sensitive technology.
